A DISPATCH from Morgan Republicans calls the hosts of the Farmers that they can carry that State against Blaine. In 1880 Garfield secured 34,700 more votes than Hancock in the State. This year the Republicans of Michigan are enthusiastic in support of Blaine, and they are united. Whatever defection there may be among the Democrats it is thought will be made up by accessions from the Irish. The gentlemen estimate that Blaine will get 240,000 votes this year. The Democrats cannot poll more than 175,000.

A MOVEMENT has recently been going the rounds of the Southern papers to the effect that, notwithstanding the unanimous votes of the Civil-Service law, Maryland and the District of Columbia have secured the lion's share of appointments. Now, the fact is, that since July, 1883, not an appointment has been made from the District of Columbia to a clerical position in the Departments except the certificate of the Civil-Service Commission, and but one appointment has been made from Maryland. Some four ago, of the twenty Examiners appointed by the Previous Department, nine were from Maryland and the District of Columbia, but this was because special knowledge was required, and the applicants in this case were present residing in the district who had served in the Pension Department, or who had been pension agents or attorneys. In making the selections the Civil-Service Commissioners acted in accordance with the letter and spirit of the law.

SECRETARY LAMAR'S D. Black, in a speech at Shrewsbury, Mass., Saturday night, said that sent to the great Generals of the War 61. States had for twenty years been the most conspicuous personal pensions in the country, and the most brilliant public speakers the country ever saw, excepting possibly, Henry Clay. His great powers of debate have always been exerted to keep the American people in the right path. His associations have not do not across the of a corrupt administration. Senator Lamar explained the Land Policy of the Administration. All its ideas were continued with the fairest and honorable motives. The Administration Senator points out that since the changes were made in 1879 Mr. Blaine has been beloved by the people who knew him best. He was elected to Congress, and to the United States Senate, and appointed Secretary of State by President Garfield, with the hearty approval and concurrence of the great majority of the American people and with the unanimous concurrence of the United States Senate. In conclusion, Senator Lamar says Mr. Blaine stands before the people as a representative statesman, from the scene of his boyhood to the acts of his manhood, as Secretary of the John Quincy Adams, Thomas Jefferson, and George Washington type.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Grand Land Office, who has been in Colorado some time specially to investigate frauds by settlers against which complaints had been made, has completed his report and had received completion of land tests by fraudulent entries, has made a report fully sustaining the settlers. Eight charges have been made against the Prairie Cattle Company, manager of Goldsboro. Tracts of 160 acres each, twenty-five acres alike, seventy-five acres alike, and eleven acres alike have been illegally found to be the corporation. It is believed that the cattle companies have fraudulently possessed themselves of nearly 4,000,000 acres of public lands in Colorado since within the last five years. In New Mexico it is asserted that 40 per cent of the lands held by the cattlemen have been fraudulently entered. In Dakota 75 per cent are fraudulent. Investigations prove that in Arizona there have been 15 fraudulent entries, in Dakota 400, in Colorado 500 (embracing 1,000,000 acres), in New Mexico 287 (embracing 1,000,000 acres), in Minnesota 911, in Washington Territory 140, in Idaho 60, in Montana 60, in Wyoming 70 (embracing 500,000 acres), in Nebraska 100, and in Kansas the fraudulent entries embrace 200,000 acres. Over 5,000 complaints remain to be investigated. A large percentage of these who have made fraudulent entries and who have illegally inclosed Government lands are English and Scotch capitalists.

THE PENDLETON AGITATION.

With the subject of legislation immediately before and the public attention thus forced to the question, it is easy to draw a discouraging picture of the spread of radical ideas, but it is a question whether it is not now in order to accept for the moment and take an inventory of those ideas that undoubtedly have a strong hold upon the people. The bill recently introduced by Senator Pendleton, providing for the appointment of a commission to examine and report upon the question of civil-service reform, is a step in the right direction. It is not a question of party politics, but one which affects the welfare of the whole people, and it is to be hoped that the bill will be passed by without opposition. There is no doubt that the present system of appointments to office is a bad one, and that the evils connected with it are increasing. The people have long been dissatisfied with it, and the recent disclosures of corruption in the Star-Route service have only served to intensify the feeling. The Pendleton bill is a step in the right direction, and it is likely to receive the support of all parties. The people have been disappointed at many things in connection with the Star-Route investigations, but they have confidence that they will operate to the punishment of the guilty parties, and they will look with interest to the action of Congress in the matter

The Speech an Eloquent and Forcible Presentation of the Party Issues.

A Democratic Deadhead in Republican Clothing Seen to Indiana for Votes.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 25.—[Special.]—Senator Benjamin Harrison formally opened the campaign in Indiana tonight in a speech at the Tomlinson Hall, which was heard by 2,000 people. It was under the auspices of a Republican association of young gentlemen, composed principally of the Old Guard, but there were also present a number of Knights of Columbus and Knights of Honor, together with their several lodge paraphernalia, and headed by marshals and aides gaily bedecked with badges and ribbons. The meeting was called to order by Col. Fred Dick, who introduced Gen. Harrison. There were 1,000 chairs provided in the hall, but the procession was delayed so long that all the available space was filled before the arrival of the Senator, and thousands were unable to gain admittance. Gen. Harrison was introduced by Gen. Lew Wallace, who was received with cheers. Gen. Wallace said that the Republicans were there to-night to celebrate the victory of the Republican party in 1860, and the preservation and perpetuation of the Union. He referred to the fact that the Democratic party had been in power for twenty-four years, and had been responsible for the Mexican war, the Dred Scott decision, the Fugitive Slave law, the Kansas-Nebraska bill, the Ostend manifesto, the Lecompton constitution, the Buchanan veto, the Crittenden resolutions, the Rebellion, and the Democratic party had been defeated in the Presidential contest when it had voted every secession measure. After a reference to the Democratic party's record in the war, Gen. Wallace said that

IN GENERAL.

Andrew D. Allen, the "lawyer" charged by Morris Ryan and Rose Williams with larceny on ladies, was arrested Saturday night, in the bar-room of the Chicago Avenue Station, by Detective Ward, going on the heels of Mr. Ryan.

Jerry Evans, keeper of a boarding-house at 204 Fifth avenue, applied yesterday to Justice Boyington for a warrant for the arrest of Mary Ann Lee, who, Evans says, owes him $20, and Mary will be arrested this morning.

Mr. Neil C. Dickson, an elder brother of the Rev. James H. Dickson, is at the Grand Pacific. He lives near Sterling, Ill., and is now on his way to San Pedro, Cal., to visit his daughter, Mrs. Judge Ross, who has just made Southern California her home for her own health.

The Cook County Horse-Fire Insurance Company held their usual weekly meeting at the Sherman yesterday, relating to the recommendation of the premium, the present annual session for the ensuing year, and the annual report to the Legislature. A dividend of twenty per cent on the amount of the outstanding premium was declared.

Andrew Ulan, a negro aged 35, who has several times been arrested for stowing in the garbs, was seen coming from the Grand Pacific Hotel shortly previous to Harmon Tully, a cab driver, who had been employed by the hotel proprietor, and who had left his cab and horse in charge of Ulan. Tully found his cab and horse in charge of Ulan, who was driving off. Tully stopped him and Ulan jumped from the cab and ran. He was arrested by Officer Ryan, of the Harrison street station, and locked up to answer the charge of larceny.
